A SWITCH IN TONE

Virginia professor who lost a race for Congress is blaming the newspapers for his defeat. What they did, he says, is report him too accurately. Had reporters been willing to "practice a little journalistic chirography to extricate my foot from my mouth, I am convinced that I would have done a better job," he says. The charge is not new, but the tone of it definitely is a switch. (Greenwood (S.C.) Index Journal)

Santo Domingo dispatches over the week-end reported that former President Juan Bosch, now in voluntary exile in Spain, has written letters back home declaring democracy is "a luxury" reserved for developed countries and it won't work in the Dominican Republic or other backward nations.

Bosch, you will recall, leader of the so-called Democratic Leftists, was elected Dominican president and took office in 1963, was overthrown by a military coup seven months later — and a violent movement to return him to office in 1965 was blocked by the intervention of U. S. troops.

Today Bosch says he is quitting his Dominican party and makes a doomsday pronouncement on democracy as a way of life for backward nations.

It's true, of course, and Bosch is the living evidence that proves why it is true.

Bosch, like most Communist fellow travelers, honored "democracy" not for its own sake but as a means of putting into effect his personal Leftist philosophy on economics and government. He was but one of a long line of radical agitators who took the example of democracy at work in industrial, wealthy, self-governing nations, as a mandate for immediate "easy living" in the very poor countries — as though the mere word "democracy" were a talisman that could turn poverty into wealth without effort.

Bosch, like his fellow travelers, could see only the Cadillac — not the effort required to buy and maintain it.

Bosch is a character valuable to Americans if only to warn us of our own position in today's world. We have mistakenly squandered billions of our national wealth to spread book "democracy" among all the peoples of the earth, not recognizing that democracy is valid only where the home people have worked industriously to make it valid.

And because of this senseless prodigality the Americans of today have good reason to look sharp and make sure they don't lose at home the very democracy they have been hell-bent on exporting.

Navy's Big Dive Chamber Is Flooded

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Sea water flooded into the Seabab 3 elevator Sunday, damaging the container designed to take aquanauts to a large capsule 600 feet below the ocean's surface to conduct the Navy's third undersea living experiment.

The unmanned container was flooded through an unsealed hatch as it was lowered in an attempt to straighten its connecting cable, Cmdr. J. M. Tomsky said. The repairs to electrical and communications equipment may require three weeks, he said.

The Navy has not announced a starting date for the undersea work.

Both Sides Blamed in Chicago Riots

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A government report blaming Chicago police for the bloodshed that marred the Democratic National Convention was welcomed today by people who were on both sides of the epic August street battles.

One somewhat unusual reaction came, however, from the Government Printing Office which refused to reproduce it without deletion of an obscene four-letter word that appears 82 times.

"Over-all it is an excellent study," said Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, who commissioned his own national television report shortly after the convention to defend his city and its policemen.

One of the leaders of the anti-war protesters—whom the report says were the victims of mindless, unrestrained and indiscriminate police violence—said it had "some gratifying aspects."

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, who commissioned his own television documentary to defend his police and his city, said Sunday of the new report "over-all it is an excellent study."

Daley said the bulk of the Chicago police force reacted with responsibility during the five August nights of disorder in darkened parks and downtown streets. He said some policemen have been suspended for their part in the violence and still others face dismissal.

A special task force compiled the report—an almost blow-by-blow account of the ferocity of the battles and the fever of the protests—for the President's commission on violence, which made it public without comment.

The White House was silent on its reaction to the report.

The task force said some police struck down innocent bystanders and peaceful protesters as well as taunting antiwar antagonists.

"To be sure, demonstrators threw things at policemen and at police cars," the report said, "but the weight of violence was overwhelming on the side of the police."

More than 10,000 demonstrators—actually outnumbered by the police force and National Guardsmen—converged on Chicago for the week of wild demonstrations that erupted, ironically, out of a protest for peace.

The report said the demonstrators showered police with obscenities, with beer cans, with chunks of concrete and ping pong balls studded with nails. One policeman was offered a sandwich filled with excrement, others were targets for sacks of human waste, the report said.

The response, said the report, "was unrestrained and indiscriminate police violence."

"That violence," it said, "was made all the more shocking by the fact that it was often inflicted upon persons who had broken no law, disobeyed no order, made no threat."

Newsmen were singled out by cursing policemen and clubbed to the ground, the report charged. Casual onlookers and innocent residents were caught in the orgy of anger, it said.

The violence began as police evicted demonstrators from a lakeside park on the first nights of the convention and chased them with clubs through the streets of a night club area in what the report said "can only be called a police riot."

It came to a climax as police beat back thousands of demonstrators besieging the candidates' downtown hotel on the night of the nomination while a shocked world watched on television.

"There is little doubt," the report said again, "the preponderance of violence came from the police."

But it adds, "It was not entirely a one-way battle." Bidding pacifist David Dellinger, leader of the peace protests, said in New York Sunday that the report has "some gratifying aspects." But, he insisted,

Chicago Report Stirs Up Public; Police Get Backing From Many

CHICAGO (AP) — The presidential commission's staff report on the Chicago demonstrations has received praise, modified by some criticism, from both sides of the fence.

Mayor Richard J. Daley said Sunday the over-all report was excellent. "My only basic criticism is the summary, which, if used alone, would mislead the public and be a disservice to those who prepared the report," he said.

The full report, Daley said, "is another contribution to the knowledge and understanding of our society requires if we are to meet the dilemma posed by the title 'Rights in Conflict.' The full report should be given the widest public distribution."

The 343-page document was submitted to the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence by a team of investigators headed by Daniel Walker, president of the Chicago Police Association.

Kissinger May Get Nixon Nod

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon meets today with Henry Kissinger, a Harvard braintrust, in their fourth publicly announced meeting in eight days.

This coincides with reports around the Nixon headquarters that an important noncabinet appointment would be announced today.

Kissinger, 45, director of Harvard University's defense studies program and head of the Harvard International Seminar, was a federal consultant on national security matters early in the administration of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Kissinger has continued to serve as a consultant on nuclear weaponry.

Sunday's developments around the Nixon camp hinted at the possibility the President-elect might not go as far as his campaign speeches indicated in substituting tax credits—requiring congressional approval—for direct federal subsidies in some aspects of the antipoverty program.

Robert Ellsworth, a top assistant to Nixon, had lunch here Sunday with Henry Ford II, board chairman of the Ford Motor Co. and chairman of the National Alliance of Businessmen created earlier this year at the behest of President Johnson.

The alliance has a goal of creating 500,000 jobs for the hard-core unemployed by early 1971. Businessmen train the recruits for regular jobs, with the federal government paying the difference between the normal cost of such training and in about one-third of all cases—the higher cost of preparing the disadvantaged for similar employment. Congress appropriated 1200 million for such subsidies to business in the fiscal year ending June 30.

The White House was silent on its reaction to the report.

The task force said some police struck down innocent bystanders and peaceful protesters as well as taunting antiwar antagonists.

"That violence," it said, "was made all the more shocking by the fact that it was often inflicted upon persons who had broken no law, disobeyed no order, made no threat."

Frisco School Threatened on Reopening

By STEVE BASSETT
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jeering students pushed and shoved Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, acting president of San Francisco State College, in a struggle over a sound truck today, but classes generally resumed normally.

City police arrested two students in the truck. They were urging continuation of a strike which has disrupted the campus since Nov. 6.

Police then drove the truck away from the campus. Helmeted police were on duty in the administration building and elsewhere as most of the college's students returned quietly to their studies.

Some students were reading in the library even before the 8 a.m. formal reopening.

The acting president announced that George Murray, Black Panther militant whose suspension was one of the strike issues, would be restored to a nonteaching position but remained suspended as a graduate student.

Murray was not seen on the campus.

Kay Boyle, well-known author and part-time instructor in creative writing, said Hayakawa summarily fired her when she objected to his efforts to silence the strikers' truck.

The Third World Liberation Front represents noncaucasians other than Negroes.

On Saturday Hayakawa declared a state of emergency, under which police will be nearby if needed, and students and faculty members disrupting classes can be dealt with quickly.

He promised due process in all cases, but speedy expulsion of students found guilty, and temporary but prompt suspension of any teachers refusing to teach.

Five days of missed classes means automatic resignation by a teacher, said Hayakawa, and the resignation will be promptly accepted.

The campus has been in turmoil since Nov. 1 when Dr. Glenn Dunke, chancellor of the 19-campus state college system, ordered suspension of George Mason Murray, a part-time San Francisco State instructor and graduate student who is a Black Panther leader.

Murray's 30-day suspension ended at midnight Saturday. Hayakawa said Sunday night he had decided what to do about Murray, but had not announced it.

15 Killed on Arkansas Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fifteen persons were killed on Arkansas highways over the long Thanksgiving period, surpassing last year's death toll for the same period by four.

The Associated Press Count for the holiday period began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday.

State Police reported that the deaths increased the death count for the year to 639, only one short of the number killed during the 12 months of 1967.

The latest victim was identified as Herman Lee Sherman, 26, of Dallas, Tex., who was killed Sunday when the car he was a passenger in struck a horse on U.S. 82 about 14 miles east of Texarkana.

Killed Saturday night was Stella Redden, 16, of Wickliffe, Ky., in a two-car collision about 10 miles south of Searcy on U.S. 67.

The other victims were identified as L. E. Wedge, 32, of Alexander; Royce R. Siler, 40, of Little Rock; Tom Walker, 81, of Scanton; Ruth Osborne, 26, of Houston, Tex.; David B. Brewer, 20, of Camden; Ella Grace Smith, 73, of Oklahoma City; Benjamin Davis, 66, of Texarkana, Tex.; Lee Bower, 54, of Benton; Bessie Williams, 68, of Lincoln; Charles Ray Downey, 52, of Midwest City, Okla.; Keith Powell, 16, of Hatfield and Frank Dale Poole, 25, of Pine Bluff.

U.S. Planes Strike in DM Zone

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and artillery attacked a North Vietnamese position in the demilitarized zone Sunday after two U.S. reconnaissance planes were fired on, the U.S. command said today.

It was the first incident of enemy activity reported since last Tuesday in the six-mile-wide zone that separates North and South Vietnam.

The U.S. attacks in the zone destroyed four bunkers and 100 yards of trenches and set off secondary explosion, indicating ammunition stores were hit, a U.S. spokesman said. The American planes were not hit.

In the American view, North Vietnam tacitly acknowledged an understanding to keep the DMZ free of military activity and refrain from indiscriminate attacks on major South Vietnamese cities in return for the bombing halt ordered Nov. 1.

North Vietnam has claimed that the bombing halt was unconditional and that charges it is violating the DMZ are a "smoke screen to camouflage the intensification of the American aggressive war in South Vietnam and illegal American reconnaissance flights over North Vietnam."

U.S. headquarters also reported that 747 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops were killed in heavy fighting on three sides of Saigon in the past week. U.S. casualties were put at 37 dead and 142 wounded, while South Vietnamese casualties were described as light.

In the air war, six waves of American B52s dropped more than 1,000 tons of bombs Sunday and today along an arc north of Saigon.

Flying in formations of six planes each, 36 of the big bombers attacked "infiltration routes and bunker complexes" from 36 miles north of Saigon to just over a mile from the Cambodian border.

The allied commands reported at least 92 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed Sunday in three clashes 21 to 31 miles northeast of Saigon. The U.S. Command said two Americans were killed and 39 wounded, while South Vietnamese casualties were said to be light.

The fighting between Saigon and the Cambodian border is the heaviest since enemy offensives were stopped in mid-August and again in mid-September.

The allied commands reported at least 92 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed Sunday in three clashes 21 to 31 miles northeast of Saigon. The U.S. Command said two Americans were killed and 39 wounded, while South Vietnamese casualties were said to be light.

Speedup of Compensation Cases Void

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today declared unconstitutional a 1967 act which required Circuit Courts to dispose of workmen's compensation cases within 60 days after the filing of the Workmen's Compensation Commission hearing record.

The law, Act 501, provided that in cases where a Circuit Court failed to act within the 60-day period, the holding of the state Workmen's Compensation Commission was automatically upheld.

In a 5-2 decision, with Justices George Rose Smith and John A. Fogleman dissenting, the court held that the legislature cannot involve itself in the judicial functions once a case has been lodged in the courts.

"There is no question that the legislature may limit or withdraw judicial jurisdiction conferred by legislative court and there is no question that the legislature may amend the compensation law in any manner it deems proper," said Associate Justice J. Fred Jones in the majority opinion.

"But once an appeal from the Workmen's Compensation Commission has been lodged in the Circuit Court, it becomes subject to the constitutional jurisdiction of the judiciary the same as any other case properly filed in a judicial tribunal and its judicial course or final disposition is not subject to legislative determination."

Jones said, therefore, the question is whether the legislature has "encroached upon the separate constitutional powers, functions and duties of the judiciary, and we conclude that it has."

The high court's ruling came in a case in Circuit Court in Pulaski County.

In another case, the Supreme Court affirmed Circuit Court at Benton in its refusal to grant a petition declaring that Charles Ellis' constitutional rights were violated when he was sentenced to life in prison in 1959. Ellis was convicted of first-degree murder in the 1958 slaying of A. Z. Cromwell.

Israel Pounds Jordan; War in Mid-East

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Israel pounded Jordan with air strikes, commando raids and artillery barrages Sunday and early today, a Jordanian military spokesman said.

Admitting only a raid by land forces and an artillery exchange, an Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv said commandos cut a highway and railroad between Jordan's capital and its only port Sunday by blowing up two bridges 40 miles inside the Arab country.

The Jordanian spokesman said Israeli jets bombed a convoy of trucks on a desert highway Sunday, destroying six. During the night, he continued, jets returned to bomb the village of Kfar Yuba in northern Jordan, killing two soldiers and wounding a third.

The spokesman said helicopters brought the Israeli commandos who blew up 100-foot road and rail bridges on the highway between Amman and the port of Aqaba.

He said two civilians were killed and four were injured, and the helicopters took the commandos out before Jordanian troops arrived.

The Israeli spokesman said the raid was in retaliation for at least 50 Arab sabotage attacks from Jordan since Nov. 16, when King Hussein and the sabotage groups were reported to have reached an agreement restraining the saboteurs.

The attack on the bridges was the second Israeli commando raid in a month. On Oct. 31 a task force blew up two bridges and a power station on Egypt's Nile River after an Egyptian artillery attack across the Suez Canal in which 15 Israelis were killed.

The Jordanian spokesman also charged that Israeli gunners precipitated a three-hour artillery duel Sunday by shelling the town of Irbid from the occupied Golan Heights in Syria. He said two children and an adult civilian were wounded.

The Israelis said the Jordanians started it by shelling a number of farm settlements in the Beisan Valley, causing slight damage and injuring one person.

Meanwhile Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban prepared to resume talks in Cyprus today with Gunnar V. Jarring of Sweden, the U.N. peace envoy for the Middle East. Jarring then flies to Egypt Wednesday and to Jordan Saturday.

In a television interview Sunday, Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan called for a "more intensive and radical effort toward integrating the West Bank and the Gaza Strip into Israel-economic integration, not political. Not annexation and no conversion of the local inhabitants into Israeli citizens."

Dayan said the only alternative was to let these occupied territories become independent units, "which would mean."

The Arab land which Israel took over in the 1967 war "must be seen as a part of Israel from economic point of view and this link must be tied swiftly and immediately," he said.

Political sources said Dayan's remarks were part of his dispute with Industry Minister Pinchas Sapir, who feels such integration would cause Israel's Jewish image to be lost because of enlarge Arab population.

At the United Nations, the International League for the Rights of Man asked U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to intercede for Jews in Egypt, Syria and Iraq. It said their human rights were being violated.

Roger N. Baldwin enclosed a five-page memorandum that said Jews were subject to "increasing harassment" of rights set out in U.N. General Assembly's 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Reaction to the report also came from the public. Chicago police spokesmen said their switchboard received more than 125 calls in an hour before midnight. Most of the callers expressed support for the police, the spokesmen said.
Police said the calls came from as far away as Denver, Colo., and Cape Cod, Mass.
The Chicago Tribune reported it received dozens of calls from Chicagoans, many of them critical of the report. The paper said some callers threatened to harm members of the Walker panel for the criticism of the police.

With Him

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The man who hijacked an Eastern Air Lines jet to Cuba over the weekend—the 17th commercial airliner hijacking of the year—may have listened to the performance on a transistor radio held to his ear.
"The man was carrying two pieces of expensive radio equipment," said a passenger, Gene McGill, Alva, Okla., rancher. "One was small with a long antenna and he kept the radio to his ear."
Eastern officials surmised the radio was tuned to the VHF frequency over which the pilot, Capt. R.J. O'Gorman of New York, was talking to Miami and Havana control towers.
The hijacker, listed as "J. Sanchez," stepped from a washroom, pointed a pistol at stewardess Phyllis Howton and commandeered the Miami-to-Dallas jet 11 minutes out of Miami Saturday night, the crew said.
O'Gorman said the hijacker was "definite in knowing exactly what he wanted. It was well planned and he seemed to have a knowledge of the cockpit."
Cuban officials permitted the crew of seven to fly the plane back to Miami early Sunday. The 33 passengers were taken by bus from Havana to Varadero, where they spent the night in a hotel.

Inside the bungalow, police found $242,283.87 in cash and stock certificates and dividend checks from numerous corporations including U.S. Steel, Woolworth, Chrysler, United Aircraft, Texaco and RCA.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Police have issued an order to pick up the white men for questioning in connection with an explosion that injured four persons at the storefront headquarters of the Black Panther party.
Anthony Kaiser, a spokesman for the militant Negro group, said the explosion early Sunday was in retaliation for an attack allegedly by Black Panthers on a Jersey City police station Friday night. Twenty shots were fired from a speeding car but no one was injured.
Newark Police Lt. Joseph Kinney said, however, it was "purely speculation" to link the two incidents. He said police had not determined whether the Newark explosion which shattered a front window and started a small fire, was a "bona fide bombing attack" and fire authorities said it may have been caused by a Black Panther "acid bomb."

Police issued the pickup order for the two white men after taking a sworn statement from Willie McIntire, 20, a Black Panther who provided their description.
McIntire told police the explosion was caused by two white men wearing "police type" hats, leather jackets and dark trousers with gold stripes.
In earlier times, farriers treated wounds and diseases of horses and were the first veterinarians, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Special Session of Senate on Nuclear Ban Is Debated

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A decision on whether to call a special session of the Senate, plus a probable briefing by his No. 1 peace negotiator await President Johnson in Washington as he winds up a six-day ranch holiday.
White House aides said during the long Thanksgiving weekend that Johnson was still considering calling the Senate back to vote on ratification of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty.
Presumably the chief executive will have to make up his mind this week in order to get senators rounded up and back in the capital with some time for debate before the Christmas holidays.
Due in Washington today for an expected conference sometime this week with Johnson was Ambassador Averell Harriman, chief U.S. negotiator at the Paris peace talks.
One of the first things on the presidential agenda, however, was a social event. The Johnsons both have been invited to a women's National Press Club dinner tonight, honoring Mrs. Johnson.

It was a quiet, mostly rainy, relaxing holiday at the LBJ Ranch for the President.
The President's only public appearances were at five church services—two on Sunday and three in a 24-hour period on Thanksgiving. He also made an unexpected visit to the 23rd annual Blanco County Hereford Breeders bull and heifer sale Saturday afternoon at Round Mountain, about 20 miles north of his ranch.
Mrs. Johnson made a Saturday excursion to her girlhood home in Karnack, a little town in East Texas. She flew there in a rainstorm and planted three magnolia trees, descendants from a tree Andrew Jackson planted at the White House.

Daughter Lynda Robb went along, and their trip included a buffet lunch at the Methodist was a social event. The Johnsons in Jefferson, 16 miles away.
While they were gone, the President drove over to a cattle auction, where he is a frequent visitor. Dressed in Western hat and tan ranch outfit, he stayed about 50 minutes. Just before he came his Foreman Dale Malechek bought a yearling bull calf for the LBJ Ranch for $425. The President did not do any buying.
The major item of White House business over the weekend was issuance of a statement by the President Saturday, expressing sorrow over the West Virginia coal mine disaster, where 78 men were entombed. Johnson urged passage of two mineworker safety bills he has proposed.

Court Saves
Powell From Jailing

NEW YORK (AP) — The Appellate Division today stayed the jailing of Adam Clayton Powell for criminal contempt within hours of the 4 p.m. deadline set for his surrender under terms of a parole.
The five-man court gave the Harlem congressman-elect a respite from arrest until a determination of his appeal from his conviction. Argument is scheduled Dec. 10.

Powell faced a maximum sentence of 90 days on contempt convictions arising from civil litigation over his 1960 defamation of a Harlem woman.
On Nov. 22, State Supreme Court Justice Arthur Markewich, who originally issued the parole last March, continued it until today.
Powell has paid $56,000 to settle the award to the woman.

NEW FLU

Remember the Asian Flu epidemic of 1957? There's a new strain raging across the country. It has been labeled "A-2/Hongkong '68." Drug-manufacturers are working on a vaccine but meantime, your best defense is to keep up your resistance. Check with your doctor if flu symptoms occur.

Number of bills paid for Arkansas members	21,731
Largest payment for care of one Arkansas member	$4,576.15

In the largest payment case above, $1,420.90 was for drugs. Blue Cross benefits pay in full the cost of drugs—and nearly all other hospital services while you are a bed patient in a hospital.

REMEMBER WHEN EVERY KID HAD MEASLES?

For the first time in 56 years, less than 100 cases of measles are being reported weekly in the entire nation. This trend caused by widespread use of rubella vaccines offers further encouragement the disease can be eradicated. This is another fine example of health care services in action. This is progress!

If you are a member of Arkansas Blue Cross and Blue Shield and you work where there is no health care plan, suggest forming an employed group to your company or fellow employees. There is an opportunity for even more savings, and you can start an Employed Group Blue Cross and Blue Shield Health Care Plan with as few as two full-time employees.

HOW IMPORTANT IS HEALTH CARE PROTECTION?

Each year over half a million American families have bills for illness which exceeds the family's entire yearly income. But those families having Blue Cross and Blue Shield health care protection know they have the best help available for paying hospital and doctor bills.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Special programs move front and center in television programming in this pre-Christmas period and they will be coming thicker and faster as the holiday approaches.

For openers, there was Sunday night's variety special starring Ann-Margret, followed by Perry Como in his only special program of the year.

Ann-Margret's CBS hour was a visual treat. The very attractive young performer sang, danced and occasionally clowning amid some very exciting sets. She was surrounded by most of the musical numbers by a talented group of male dancers.

The program was based on her nightclub act, but room was made to permit almost cameo appearances by Danny Thomas, who sang a song, and Jack Benny, who had a single gag. Bob Hope did a song and dance number with the star.

The most effective portion of the show was a kidding treatment of the lavish film musical of the depression days.

Less effective were sequences shot in Ann-Margret's native Sweden as she roamed through the countryside singing an old folk song.

Then came the Como show—a warm, easy and thoroughly professional hour in which Como wandered around smiling and singing and helping make his guest stars look awfully good.

There was a very funny sketch with Don Adams playing an insanely jealous husband to Carol Burnett's weary housewife—along the lines of the sketches Jackie Gleason and Audrey Meadows used to pull off so well. And there was, of course, a lot of very pleasant singing that ranged from "A Bicycle Built for Two" to "Little Green Apples"—and that's some range.

On the educational television network, "PBL" returned for its season with an unusual two-hour documentary treatment about a young couple anticipating the birth of their first child and an introspective report on a middle-aged man with terminal cancer.

Somewhat the producer got the participants to ignore, for the most part, the presence of cameras and crews, even during such intimate moments as an examination by a pediatrician. The couple, a painter and his wife of six years, discussed frankly their feeling about having a child—"an extension of our relationship," they said. The sequences showing the mother-to-be in training for natural childbirth were particularly interesting.

It was a very different, sensitive and revealing program.

Saturday night brought the annual Miss Teen-age America Pageant finals, 90 minutes during most of which eight young finalists among the 59 girls went through that demonstration established by the Miss America Pageant that is supposed to show their poise and wit. Finally, a 17-year-old from Pittsburgh, Pa., Melissa Babish, emerged tearfully as the winner.

The young contestants, from 13 to 17 were attractive, but rather heavily made up. As in the case of all of these TV beauty pageants, the dialogue given the adult professional entertainers who appeared during the program—in this case Dean Jones, Trini Lopez and Michele Lee—was stilted, humorless and perfunctory.

"Re-pleat" with fashion for holiday is this handsome classic pleated-front shirt in permanent press. It has high, wide and handsome collar for a dresser at-home look. This is a Lady Van Heusen design.

Bridge the generation gap and stitch a swinging cape of white leather-look vinyl. With fabrics and fashions changing as fast as they are, with-it sewers have to try new stitching ideas.

STITCHIN' TIME

By JOANNE SCHREIBER

In sewing, as in practically everything else, there's a generation gap. With-it sewers are eager to try new fabrics such as fake fur, bonded vinyls and leatherettes and new styles, such as capes, vests or culottes. So, if you're doing Christmas stitching for a young miss, pick something she might sew for herself.

A good choice is a winter-white cape in leather-look vinyl to wear over slacks or skirts, to school or to the soda shop, in fair weather and foul. Vinyl and similar leather-look materials are usually backed with a woven cotton, and are easy to sew following these hints from the Pfaff Sewing Machine people:

Pick a pattern with an easy cut, minimum of seams. A good choice is this cape, with only four major pieces. Keep fabric rolled till you are ready to sew, to prevent creases.

Remember that pins make permanent holes in leather-look materials, so pin only in seam allowances, or use transparent tape. It's easier to sew on the wrong side. If you must sew on the right side, place a strip of tissue paper between fabric and presser foot to prevent sticking.

Although you may use a leather needle, a new machine needle will do as well. Test-stitch a swatch before starting to stitch the cape. Make sure pressure, tensions and stitch length are correctly adjusted.

A cape such as this one may be lined in fake fur for extra cold-weather warmth, or it may be lined in a gay cotton. Remember to make separate hems in lining and vinyl. Vinyl may be turned up and glued with rubber cement rather than stitched.

The button loops are made of cord-filled braid and matching braid edges the armholes.

Naturally, a cape such as this one may be kept clean by simply wiping it occasionally with a damp sponge. It may be worn in the rain since it is completely waterproof.

So if you are planning to sew for a teen-ager, pick the materials and styles that are part of her own fashion scene.

The pattern for this cape, available exclusively to readers of this newspaper, comes

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HE KEPT HIS SHIRT ON, SO FORGET IT

Dear Helen: I am (or was!) happily married to a wonderful man I thought I could trust. In 13 years he has never lied to me about anything that really mattered.

And then came that stag party, and my life is shattered!

Jim, my husband, got a promotion. He and several other men who also received raises, planned a stag party to celebrate: Just golf, a few drinks, and dinner, he said.

He gave me my usual good-bye kiss at 4 p.m., and I assumed he'd be back by 9:00. Helen, my wonderful, faithful, loving husband came home at 2 a.m. — with five lipstick smears on his white shirt. I was so shocked I slapped him and started crying and I haven't stopped since. The terrible thing is that our 11-year-old daughter woke up at my cry. She ran into our room, spotted the lipstick and, with tears in her eyes, she sobbed, "Daddy, you have lipstick on your shirt. You were with a lady tonight. We waited for you until 10:30. Is that why you came home so late?"

Jim tried to explain that three secretaries joined the party but he didn't know they were coming. Then, he said, they danced. Nothing more. I know one of those secretaries. She is the type who if you give her an inch she takes a foot. And five stains, all the same color of lipstick?

I want to believe Jim, but can I ever really trust him again? Maybe he has just been a good actor all these years and doesn't love me after all. Should I call his boss and ask him to fire the girl, or should I call the girl and tell her to keep her empty head off my husband's shoulders, or what? — SHOCK-ED WIFE

Dear Wife: You should count yourself lucky that the 2 a.m. "Daddy, dear Daddy" scene didn't send Jim to the nearest hotel!

For Pete's sake, forget an explainable night out, and hope your wonderful, loving, FAITHFUL husband forgives your histrionics! — H.

P.S. In other words, keep your shirt on — HE did!

Dear Helen: I am the only male in a family of four women, with two bathrooms. The spray-can situation is getting me down. Will you please mention to manufacturers that they should print in big letters what the can is to be used for? I mean VERY big!

It's bad enough to mistake air purifier for deodorant, but when you pick up hair spray instead, well, all I've got to say is I am — AGAINST STIFF ARM PITTS

Dear Against: Manufacturers duly alerted. Meanwhile, why not switch to roll-on? — H.

Dear Helen: Remember me? I am "Changed Wife" who said "I am 45 going on 100." Thank you, thank you for your answer! You are so right: "I WAS going through the 'moan-opause' — 'that slump in a woman's life when her children no longer depend on her, grandchildren haven't yet arrived, she becomes much more aware of her husband — and what she sees is mostly bad.'"

The guy I married didn't get the best deal either, but it took me a long time to realize it. I'm following your advice, Helen, and being honest with myself. I think I'm on the way to being a better wife and a better person, and a much happier one too. — NOW 45 GOING ON 46.

Dear 45: I hardly ever print the "Thank You's" because they sound like bragging, but yours is special. I'm so glad that, between us, we managed to make you feel 55 years younger! — H.

Tie Game Blasts So Cal Out of No. 1

By MIKE PECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southern California Trojans, clinging on a tie, will have to wait until New Year's Day now to get their door-to-door wish—No. 1 ranking.

The Trojans missed a chance last Saturday to retake the top spot from Ohio State when they wound up with a dissatisfying 21-21 tie against the ninth-ranked Notre Dame.

"I wish we could go into sudden death instead of settling for a tie," muttered a disheartened O. J. Simpson, USC's Heisman Trophy winner, who had the worst day of his two-year varsity career.

His coach, John McKay, felt the same way. "We didn't start the game playing for a tie. Let's play until midnight if we have to."

Even Ara Parseghian, who knows about ties and No. 1 ranking, would have liked a sudden death overtime.

"Sure, let's go," quipped the Notre Dame coach, who had his team run out the clock in the final moments against Michigan State several years ago in a memorable tie that kept Notre Dame's top ranking that day.

Now the Trojans, who entered the game ranked second, could drop to third behind idle Penn State, which winds up its season Saturday against Syracuse before an Orange Bowl date with Kansas.

However, Southern Cal could get it all back in that door-to-door battle against Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. There will be a final Associated Press poll after the bowl games.

Several other ranking teams had their troubles on college football's last big regular season weekend while Army had to go all out to edge underdog Navy 21-14 in their classic.

Tennessee, No. 7, and headed for the Cotton Bowl, needed Karl Krenser's 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter to get by Vanderbilt 10-7 in one of the many rivalries that highlighted the day.

Alabama, No. 15 with a Cator Bowl date, got by 18th ranked Auburn 24-16, while Arizona, No. 19, lost a chance at the Western Athletic Conference title by losing to Arizona State, No. 20, 30-7.

Georgia, No. 4, readying for the Sugar Bowl, belted Georgia Tech 47-8, and Oklahoma, No. 11, turned up for the Bluebonnet Bowl with a 41-7 rout over Oklahoma State.

Houston, No. 10, fell to Florida State 40-20 Friday night.

Southern Cal, 9-0-1, took a 7-0 lead on Sandy Durko's 21-yard run with an intercepted pass, but Joe Theismann, injured Terry Hanratty's fill-in, led the Irish to a 21-7 halftime lead.

Then USC came alive with Simpson scoring in the third quarter and Steve Sogge throwing 40 yards to Sam Dickerson in the fourth. The Irish, 7-2-1, had chances to win, but Scott Hempel missed field goal tries from 47 and 33 yards in the closing minutes.

"I've always wanted an undefeated season, but we still haven't lost," said Simpson, who managed only 55 yards in 21 carries. "We just started going after them too late."

A subdued McKay, asked if Notre Dame was the best the Trojans met this season, said: "I guess so; they tied us, didn't they?"

Charley Jarvis, who fumbled away Army's chance to beat Navy last year, got even with three touchdowns and carried 21 times for 88 yards and set an Army career rushing record of 2,334 yards. Glenn Davis held the record of 2,323.

But Army, a two touchdown favorite, which blew a 14-0 lead,

Lady Cats Win Over Nashville

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Hanging tenaciously to a steady slim lead, the Hope Lady Cats upset the tough Nashville Scrapperettes 45-45 in a tight battle at Jones Field House last Saturday night.

It was the first win of the season for the Lady Cats, who at 1-1 now face two more District 7-A opponents tomorrow and Thursday nights. But the big factor was the poise of the Hope girls through the critical final moments and a stingy set of guards.

Neither team could amount an attack in the early going, as most observers realized Nashville as the favorites. Both teams hit on 3 of 8 shots, but two free throws sent the Scrapperettes out 8-5 at the quarter.

In the second period the Hope guards moved back to halt the driving Nashville forwards, and the visitors were forced to shoot from outside. Still trailing 8-5 after two minutes of the second quarter, Lady Cat Coach Charlotte Gibson sent in freshman forward Dee Singleton to add height on the offensive side.

Dee responded immediately with a driving two-pointer, and a pair of successful hook shots by Eva Jo Hale put Hope out front 12-10 with 3:35 left in the half.

After a timeout the Nashville guards sagged back toward the goal, knowing the Lady Cats' outside shooting was not too experienced. Free throws kept the margin close, but a tip-in by Hale at the halftime buzzer sent Hope into the dressing rooms with a 20-12 lead.

This was hard to believe for the Lady Cats, and Nashville nearly shattered the dream at the start of the third segment.

In 2 1/2 minutes five fouls sent the Scrapperettes out to a 26-21 advantage with 4:20 showing.

Jo McKamie hit four straight field goals here to save the cause and keep it close, narrowing the gap to 30-29. Then a sudden three-point spurge in the closing seconds put Hope ahead 34-33 with the final period to play.

Everyone was wondering how long it would last, then suddenly two baskets by McKamie and one by Singleton made it 40-33 with 4:47 left, and the Hope fans were going wild.

Suddenly the lady Cats went cold, though, and Nashville played ball control as they quickly narrowed the gap. Cashing in on six free shots, the Scrapperettes jumped in front 41-40 with 3:40 left as Dee Singleton fouled out for Hope.

At this point the Hope guards had a great amount of pressure stacked up on their relative inexperience, but Sharon East, Junanne Reynolds, and Jenny Callcott responded by not allowing another field goal the rest of the way.

Eva Jo Hale cashed four in a row to put the Lady Cats in command 44-41 at 2:50, but Nashville charged back to tie it up at 45-45 with only sixty ticks remaining.

Jo McKamie hit the go-ahead free throw thirty seconds later, and a stall game gave the Scrapperettes only the last four seconds as the ball never crossed mid-court, 46-45, and it had to be some kind of morale boost to a rebuilding Lady Cat squad.

Coach Gibson was ecstatic after the win, and could only heap praise on everyone who played. Earlier she had been pessimistic over the progress of her forwards, but on a good shooting night they scored just enough.

Nashville had two high-scoring forwards in Kay McClure and Kay Holiday, but the Lady Cats had been well schooled on defense as to methods of containing the pair, and it was the difference. McClure hit about her average at 28 points, and Holiday connected for 16. No one else could take up the slack, though, with Connie Echols managing only a single point.

The Lady Cats try to move above .500 tomorrow night, playing host to the Prescott Curley Wolves at Jones Field House in the second of a three-game slate. The girls game will be preceded by a junior boys contest and followed by the senior boys game.

Prescott has a crackerjack girls team this year, too, and they will be hard to handle. They return leading scorers Nancy Taylor and Rosemary Lee from last year's set of district semifinals, and their guards are tough and good rebounders. The winner could possibly emerge as the leading choice behind almighty Ashdown, who has it all.

Sideburns

Big Issue

in Baseball

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —

Baseball's general managers met behind closed doors today at one of the first sessions of the annual winter meetings, and it was anticipated that they were looking for a graceful way to cut off the Great Sideburn Debate.

The hairy issue arose a couple of months ago when American League general managers, meeting in Colorado Springs,

Colo., included among their recommendations for improving baseball a proposal that would ban players from wearing mustaches, beards and "extreme

sideburns."

The big question was the size and texture of the sideburns—or when does a sideburn become a beard.

And that is the crucial issue.

There seems little doubt that rules will be passed banning mustaches and beards, which seem to be sprouting among many pro basketball and pro football players. But some yardstick apparently will have to be found to regulate side-burns.

While the general managers were expected to tangle with that problem, they also were expected to propose methods of bringing relief to baseball's hitters in this era of the pitcher.

But the first order of business on the day was the annual draft, with such former stars such as

Dick Radatz, John Wyatt, Bob

Chance and Dave Nicholson

among players now in the minor who could be purchased for $25,000 by major league clubs.

Alworth Saves Chargers

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

John Hadl and Lance Alworth are keeping San Diego's game of catch-up alive in the American Football League stretch race.

Hadl fired five touchdown passes—four of them to the elusive Alworth—as the Chargers bombed the Denver Broncos 47-23 Sunday and remained in the thick of the three-way Western Division title chase.

San Diego, 9-3, trails co-leaders Oakland and Kansas City by one game with two weeks to go in the regular season. The Raiders and Chiefs were idle Sunday after winning Thanksgiving Day games to stay in a first-place deadlock.

The New York Jets, who clinched the Eastern Division crown when Kansas City ousted second place Houston 24-10 Thursday, trimmed Miami 35-17 as relief pitcher Babe Parilli tossed three touchdown passes in the fourth quarter—two of them to record-setting Don Maynard in a 42-second burst.

Boston snapped a five-game losing streak by whipping Cincinnati 33-14 in Sunday's other game. Oakland edged Buffalo 13-10 Thursday.

In the National Football League, Baltimore walloped Atlanta 44-0, San Francisco stunned Green Bay 27-20, Los Angeles flattened Minnesota 31-3, Cleveland trounced New Orleans 23-17 and St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 20-10. Philadelphia downed Detroit 12-0 and Dallas outscored Washington 29-20 in the NFL Thanksgiving Day action.

Hadl hit Alworth with three early scoring passes, one of them a 79-yard strike, then flipped two more to Gary Garrison and Alworth after the Broncos cut a 31-3 deficit to 31-23 early in the third period.

Alworth grabbed nine passes for 171 yards and a club single game mark of 24 points. But the swift flanker gave all the credit to Hadl. "He had it right on the button all the way," Alworth said. "He was terrific. When you've got a man like that throwing, it can't help but give you a lift."

Maynard broke Raymond Berry's all-time pro record for career pass receiving yardage with seven catches, good for 160 yards, against the Dolphins.

The slim Jet flanker pulled in a 54-yard scoring bomb from Joe Namath in the first half and scored on 47 and 25-yard Parilli payoff pitches in the final period as New York erased the Dolphins' 17-14 lead.

He finished the game with an 11-year total of 9,332 yards, compared to Barry's 9,275 in 13 seasons with the Baltimore Colts.

Heywood's Basket Debut Is a Smash

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

Lew Alcindor opened his final collegiate basketball season in his usual good form, but Spencer Heywood's varsity debut was simply smashing.

Alcindor, UCLA's 7-foot-2 All-American, scored 18 points, passed off for many more and dominated the backboards in leading the Bruins, ranked first in The Associated Press' major college basketball poll, to a 94-82 victory over 10th-ranked Purdue Saturday night.

Heywood, Detroit's 6-8 sophomore who sparked the U.S. Olympic team to a gold medal, took an illegal dunk shot and smashed the glass backboard, ending the Titans' game against Aquinas with 6 1/2 minutes left.

No one protested the illegal shot, Detroit was leading 103-40. Heywood said he thought an Aquinas player "was going to bridge me. The only defense I had was to dunk the ball, which is illegal, but I thought it would save me possible injury."

Alcindor got plenty of help from two newcomers—Curtis Rowe a sophomore and John Valley, a junior college transfer.

Rowe scored 27 points and got 14 rebounds while Valley tossed in 19 points to help Alcindor offset the 33-point performance by Purdue's Rick Mount.

Third-ranked Kentucky gave Coach Adolph Rupp his 783rd career victory by crushing Xavier of Ohio 115-77 as Mike Casey and Dan Issel scored 29 points each.

No. 5 Kansas, led by the 22 points of Jo Jo White, another Olympian, topped St. Louis 65-65.

Colts Hold Lead Over the Rams

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Colts, more than anyone, know better than to rest on past accomplishments. And the Green Bay Packers are learning.

Only last year the Colts ran up a 11-0 record only to blow their division title to Los Angeles by losing to the once-beaten Rams in the last game of the season.

With that reminder, the Colts remain plenty cautious now with their 11-1 mark and half game lead over the Rams in the Coastal Division of the National Football League, despite a 44-0 rout over Atlanta Sunday for their third shutout in five weeks.

"Nothing we've done so far will mean anything unless we win the last one," was the way defensive tackle Fred Miller put it.

That last one is in two weeks against the Rams, who kept pace with an equally impressive 31-3 romp at Minnesota.

The Colts first must take on once-powerful Green Bay, which is finding out that two consecutive Super Bowl victories is no assurance that it will get a chance at a third.

On the contrary, the Packers have a good chance of not even winning the Central Division after dropping before San Francisco 27-20. Green Bay, at 5-6-1 and Baltimore and Chicago still to play, will need more than reputation to catch the Bears and Minnesota.

Pineda and Cordero Seek Jockey Crown

Alvaro Pineda and Angel Cordero Jr. are battling down the stretch in the closest race for the national jockey championship in 18 years.

They have alternated in the lead for the 1968 riding title virtually day by day for several weeks. At last count Cordero was in front with 296 winners to 295 for Pineda.

Not since 1950 when Willie Shoemaker and Joe Culmone finished in a tie at 388 has there been such a spirited struggle in the closing weeks of the year for the national riding title.

Pineda, who rode 419 winners last year to finish second to Jorge Velasquez' 438, scored a triple at Bay Meadows last Saturday. Cordero rode only one winner at Aqueduct in New York.

However, Cordero rode five winners in Puerto Rico Sunday while Pineda was shut out in Mexico.

One of Pineda's three winners was Praise Jay, who took the Bay Meadows Handicap. Cordero's winner at Aqueduct was on Madero's Dancer in a maiden race for 2-year-olds.

Cordero finished third on Principe in the $58,000 Stuyvesant Handicap. Spring Double, ridden by Chuck Baltazar, came from last place to win the Stuyvesant by four lengths over Miles Fanc.

Panell Hall and Stay Out Front took divisions of the Miss Florida Handicap at Tropical Park. Sea Castle survived a claim of foul and won the Laurel Tru Cup.

Six Mark scored in the Crescent City Handicap at the New Orleans Fair Grounds and Twice Roman in the Hartford Purse at Lincoln Downs.

Milwaukee Bucks

PROSPECTUS—Milwaukee did better than Phoenix in expansion draft. Coach Larry Costello has two established stars in Embry and Rodgers around whom he can build. Costello's club will run and might surprise a team or two. Prediction—Seventh in East.

Larry Costello

FORWARDS—Bob Love, Fred Hetzel and Dave Gambee form representative front line. Love can rebound; Hetzel and Gambee can score. Love might be big surprise, if played regularly. Rating—B.

CENTER—Rugged, but aging, Wayne Embry has come out of retirement again. Last time he did it, he helped Celtics win a title as back-up to Russell. He's strong, excellent rebounder, but not much of a scorer. Rating—C+.

BACKCOURT—Flashy Guy Rodgers is good start and John McGlocklin is capable. Bob Weiss from Seattle will back them up. Rating—B—.

ROOKIES—Charlie Paulk, top draft choice, could fit in up front. Best of rest is Bill Cunningham (Murray State), who looks like No. 2 center behind Embry.

Rangers No. 1 for a Little While

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
"We're No. 1," chanted New York fans as the clock ticked off the final seconds of the Rangers' 3-1 victory over Toronto Sunday night.

And, for about two hours, the Rangers were indeed No. 1 in the National Hockey League's East Division. Then Bobby Rousseau and Rogatien Vachon went to work on Chicago and now the Rangers are No. 2.

Panell Hall and Stay Out Front took divisions of the Miss Florida Handicap at Tropical Park. Sea Castle survived a claim of foul and won the Laurel Tru Cup.

Fort Smith's Manpower Takes Title

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fort Smith Northside did not capture the state football championship with a collection of nondescript athletes.

The Grizzlies placed six players on the 25-member Associated Press All-State team, which included three specialists. Some observers said the Grizzlies had as many as eight players who deserved recognition.

One opposing coach would mention tight end Nick Avlos and guard Doug Lowrey. Another would single out defensive guard Ellis Bishop and tackle John Bozman. A third would rave about the abilities of center Johnny Johnson, tackle Albert Dickerson and quarterback safety Glenn Bannister.

Avlos, Lowrey, Bishop, Bozman and Bannister made the team along with Billy Joe Releford, considered by all one of the top running backs to come out of the state in a long while.

"There never has been a boy in this league to score 120 yards in a season," he says. "And, that's against people keying on you every Friday night."

"He's strong and he has speed," Stancil says. "He can run inside and run outside. I doubt seriously that there's a back in the country that's any better."

Releford carried 194 times for 1,278 yards. His running mates in the All-State backfield Kirby Clements of Springdale and Jon Richardson of Little Rock Horace Mann, also rang up impressive statistics.

Clements carried 284 times for 1,443 yards and Richardson racked up 977 yards on 136 attempts.

The quarterback is Mike New of Conway.

"I think Mike is the best quarterback I've seen as far as having the qualities you want," says Conway Coach Dennis Fulmer. "Other than being able to run and throw well he's got a good head and he's got guts."

New passed for 14 touchdowns and rushed for 11 more. "He can do it all," said North Little Rock Coach Ken Stephens. "He's head and shoulders above anybody I've seen."

Little Rock Hall and Pine Bluff placed three players each on the team. Hall landed offensive guard Cleveland Barfield, split end Bill Palmer and defensive guard Danny Garner on the team. Punter Bobby Freeze, linebacker Bill Denny and offensive tackle Bobby Bradsher were chosen from Pine Bluff.

Here's the complete AP All-State team:

Linebackers — Bill Kennedy, 6-2, 199, Pine Bluff and Tony Cotton, 5-10, 160, North Little Rock.

Halfbacks — Jim Irwin, 5-11, 160, Springdale; Glenn Bannister, 5-11, 170, Fort Smith Northside and Charles Williams, 5-11, 180, Little Rock Mann.

Return Specialist — Connell Williams, 5-11, 170, Malvern.

Punter — Bobby Freeze, 6-0, 185, Pine Bluff.

Kicking Specialist — Bruce Eird, 5-9, 225, Malvern.

In the ABA Sunday, Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 139-12 and Houston edged Denver 108-100.

The Lakers used their usual bench and Edgin Baylor's 30 points to top Milwaukee. Set dom-used Jay Cartz and Cliff Anderson contributed key baskets and Johnny Egan threw in 27 points.

San Diego clinched its victory over San Francisco with seven straight points midway through the final period. Don Kojis and Elvin Hayes paced the winners with 30 and 29 points, respectively.

Johnson Wins for Bullets Over Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gus Johnson came off the bench in the National Basketball Association Sunday night. Referee Jake O'Donnell wished he had one to sit down on.

Johnson scored 19 of his 20 points in the second half as the Baltimore Bullets whipped the Chicago Bulls 110-100 and took a 1½-game lead over idle Boston in the Eastern Division.

One of the men he kept hoping was O'Donnell, who officiated the game by himself when his partner failed to show up.

Johnson scored seven straight points in the third period as the Bullets raced to a 62-55 lead and were never headed.

Elsewhere, Los Angeles beat Milwaukee 119-112 and San Diego tripped San Francisco 116-105.

Saturday night, it was Atlanta 126, Cincinnati 109; New York 120, Detroit 108; Boston 117, Philadelphia 113 in overtime; Chicago 100, Phoenix 96 and Milwaukee 107, San Francisco 101.

Basketball Season Is Under Way

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Going almost unnoticed, the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball teams have completed their warmup schedule and are now ready for full-fledged conference warfare.

The league schedule gets under way tonight with all 10 teams in action.

Defending champion Henderson plays College of the Ozarks at Clarksville. Arkansas College is at Ouachita, Hendrix plays at Harding, Arkansas A&M visits Arkansas Tech and Southern State travels to State College of Arkansas.

Ozarks and Henderson are the only two undefeated teams in the conference. Ozarks has a 4-0 record and Henderson is 2-0. Harding has the next best record at 4-1. Hendrix is the only winless team at 0-2.

By DICK KLEINER
Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Eating a nice, greasy, movie-caterer's stew on a wooden bench in the hot Pasadena sun across from Natalie Wood in a bikini isn't calculated to improve the digestion. But these are the sacrifices we have to make to keep you informed about the Hollywood scene.

Natalie was shooting a movie called "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice," hereinafter called "Bob & Etc." They had rented the luxurious pad of some Pasadena millionaire and were shooting around the pool. The caterer had set up his mobile kitchen and his comfy wooden benches in a field across the street.

It's been two years since Natalie has made a movie. She says she couldn't find a script that was different. But the two years off weren't a total loss—"I learned to play tennis, to cook, and I got myself a fiancé. That's not a bad two years' work."

The fiancé is an English

TWO MEMBERS OF THE SEX QUARTET, "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice," are Dyan Cannon and bikini-clad Natalie Wood, shown here in a scene from the forthcoming movie. No one is saying very much about the plot, but the film is rumored to involve wife-swapping.

planned to fall back on the club finesse.

Jim: "That is exactly what South did and the diamond play worked, to all appearances. The jack lost to Bobby's ace."

Oswald: "If South could have looked into Bobby's hand that falsecard would have cost Bobby three over-tricks but there was no reason for South to think anything except that West was sitting there with the queen of diamonds. He won the spade return and took another diamond finesse. Bobby took his queen and cashed three spade tricks."

You decide to pass. West bids three hearts. North and East pass. What do you do now?

DEADLINE DEC. 10

agent-turned-producer named Richard Gregson. Natalie says they will probably marry early in '69—"The problem is where we'll live, but it will work itself out."

The young actors who play the children in the picture clustered around Natalie, who is evidently popular with them. They didn't call her "Natalie" nor did they call her "Miss Wood." It was always the whole name—"Hey, Natalie Wood, can I try on your sunglasses?" or "Hey, Natalie Wood, you got two salads."

One of the other stars of the picture, Bob Culp, joined us. And we talked about the director, Paul Mazursky. This is his first feature film.

Culp said he has known Mazursky for many years, and was high in his praise of the rookie director.

"He's great," Culp said. "I think he'll be this town's second comedy director—there's Mike Nichols and him and nobody else."

The other two actors who make up the foursome in this sex quartet are Elliot Gould (Barbra Streisand's husband) and Dyan Cannon (Cary Grant's ex-wife). Since nobody is talking very much about the plot of "Bob & Etc."—the rumor is that it has to do with wife-swapping—I asked Dyan to explain it to me.

"It's the story of two married couples and their insecurities and securities," she said. "It takes them apart, from the time they get up until they go to bed—with the accent on the latter. It gets down to the nitty-gritty."

So we're still in the dark. Dyan laughed, a sight calculated to make one forget details like movie plots.

She says she's achieved happiness—and she looks it—through the use of a form of yoga called Agni-Yoga, which involves meditation as well as yoga exercise.

"I used to be up tight," she says, "but now I have a relaxed mind."

She's changed, she says, in many ways.

"I used to think I knew everything," she says. "Like I was sure I knew the way to a happy marriage. All you had to do was work at it. I was sure that if I devoted myself to it completely, it would work. So I did just that—I was a good wife 24 hours of the day."

"It didn't work. If I get married again—and I have no plans—I'm not sure what I'll do. If I knew the secret of a happy marriage, I'd bottle it."

Q—What determines the membership of the electoral college?

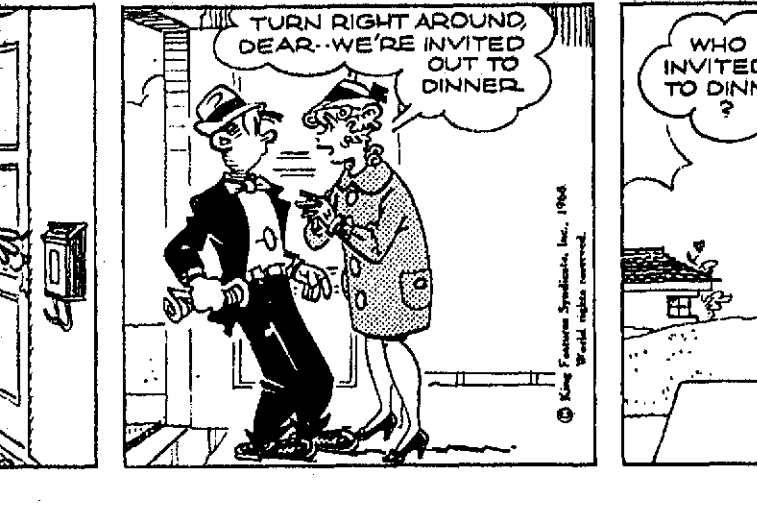

A—Every state has as many votes as the total of its senators and representatives in Congress. Amendment 23 to the U.S. Constitution, ratified in 1961, gave the District of Columbia three electoral votes.

Q—Where did life originate?

A—Most scientists believe that life began in the oceans and lakes, which held many kinds of chemicals in solution.

2 Issues Confront Peace Talks

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — U. S. and North Vietnamese diplomats have begun private meetings in Paris looking toward the opening soon of the expanded Vietnam peace conference, informed sources said today.

The preliminary U.S.-North Vietnamese discussions are being held in anticipation that the South Vietnamese delegation will arrive late this week. The American and North Vietnamese representatives are reported working on arrangements for a preliminary procedural meeting attended by representatives of the four groups who will sit at the conference: The United States, North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong.

This session would work out the time, place and at least minimum procedures for the formal opening of the conference.

U.S. diplomats expect a double-track negotiation when the conference gets under way.

One of the tracks would deal primarily with the military situation and ways to scale down the fighting. The United States would be deeply involved in this bargaining which could produce limited agreements at an early stage.

The other track would involve political affairs in South Vietnam, would be handled mainly by the Vietnamese and would probably move at a slow pace for months.

This is assuming that:

1. The Communists agree to deal with some military items separately rather than insisting on wrapping everything into one package.
2. The expanded parley does not blow up early when the rival Vietnamese start hurling charges at each other face to face.

The delegation from the Saigon government is expected here this week, and the broadened talks are expected to start shortly thereafter.

The new round is to include negotiators from the United States and North Vietnam who began meeting last May, and from the South Vietnam government and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

President Johnson set a precedent for steps to reduce the level of combat with his order Oct. 31 halting the bombing of North Vietnam. He tied this to North Vietnam's not "abusing" the demilitarized zone between the two Vietnams and a curb on shelling of South Vietnam's cities.

U.S. negotiators believe that despite a flurry of charges and countercharges, Communist violations of Johnson's terms have not been on a large enough scale to warrant resumption of the bombing.

The U.S. delegation has kept under wraps so far just what specific combat reductions may be proposed to the Communists early in the conference. One possibility that has been mentioned is observance of the 1962 Geneva agreement which was supposed to guarantee the independence and neutrality of Laos.

Washington accuses Hanoi of violating that accord by wholesale movement of men and supplies through Laos into South Vietnam. U.S. planes bomb the route, known as the Ho Chi Minh Trail, around the clock. One U.S. proposal at Paris might be designed to stem such infiltration.

Another possibility is a proposal to hold down hostilities in specific localities or regions of South Vietnam. This would fall short of a general cease-fire, which U.S. officials do not consider practical until much later in the negotiating process.

The chief U.S. negotiator, W. Averell Harriman, said Sunday he hoped for fairly speedy progress on some items once the conference resumes but "a long-term settlement may take quite awhile."

Harriman, who flew to the United States for a brief visit, said he would be glad to see President-elect Richard M. Nixon on and give him any information he can if Nixon wants to see him. But Harriman said he assumes that after Nixon is inaugurated the new President will replace him with his own man and "there is no reason why a new team cannot take over without any substantial loss."

In New York, persons who have seen Nixon in the past week said he wants the maximum possible continuity in the U.S. negotiating position, and this was taken as an indication he might ask either Harriman or his chief deputy, Cyrus R. Vance, to stay on in Paris.

Teen-Ager Titlist Is Modest Girl

CHICAGO (AP) — Melissa Babish, the new Miss Teen-Age America, says that despite her selection as the nation's foremost high school girl, she's "absolutely, positively normal."

Miss Babish, 16, who also holds the title of Miss Teen-Age Pittsburgh, said Sunday, "I come from a small high school and have friends and relatives like everybody else."

A dark-eyed brunette, she was crowned as the nation's outstanding teen-age girl Saturday night in Fort Worth, Tex.

She said she objects to a description of the competition as a beauty contest.

"It's not a beauty contest," she declared, "and the winner is not the most glamorous, beautiful or most intelligent girl in the United States—she's the most typical teen-ager."

Miss Babish, who plans to pursue a career in law, said she maintains an "A" average at South Fayette High School in McDonald, Pa.

She is scheduled to speak at a 4-H Club dinner Tuesday night honoring the 60 winners of the organization's petroleum power award during the annual 4-H Convention.

4 Ousted Churches to Protest

MALVERN, Ark. (AP)—The Rev. Merle A. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Malvern, said today that representatives of four churches, including his, would meet tonight at Little Rock to discuss recent action by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

All-Stars Defeat Ark. Tech.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The All-Stars of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference revenged their individual team losses Saturday and defeated conference champion Arkansas Tech 42-20.

Bobby Hill, a junior from State College of Arkansas, scored three touchdowns, including two in the closing minutes of the first half, to lead the All-Stars to a comeback victory.

Two field goals by Gidreil O'Bar and a six-yard touchdown pass from Leon Anderson to Rick Thone pushed Tech to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter.

The All-Stars marched 65 yards for a touchdown following O'Bar's 47-yard field goal with Hill scoring from the 16 and Jorgen Gertz converting with 1:19 left in the first half.

4 College BB Games Tonight

Four more Southwest Conference basketball teams open their seasons tonight after Texas Tech and Arkansas initiated the season Saturday.

The league stands 1-1 in inter-sectional games following the weekend activity. Tech defeated Loyola of New Orleans 79-75 and Arkansas lost to Missouri 60-59.

SMU, Texas A&M, TCU and Texas join the fun tonight with inter-sectional games. SMU plays at Vanderbilt; Texas A&M was Southern Missisippi.

The other two league teams, rice and Baylor, will open Tuesday night. Rice hosts Texas A&I and Baylor hosts Texas Lutheran.

Senior captain Jerry Haggard and sophomore Steve Williams each scored 17 points to lead Tech to a successful opening. But the Red Raiders had to hold off a fierce rally by Loyola that almost erased a 21-point deficit.

Danny Pike hit a 14-foot jump shot with 10 second to go to give Missouri its one-point decision over Arkansas. Robert McKenzie paced the Razorbacks with 16 points.

It "overemphasizes the provocations on the part of the demonstrators."

Dellinger is among five top figures in the Chicago disorders under subpoena to testify as a House Un-American Activities subcommittee resumes its hearings today on the convention clashes.

Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., subcommittee chairman, has said earlier hearings uncovered a number of known Communists involved in the protests. But the task force report said that while Communists were present at almost all stages, "none of them ever had much direct influence" on the planning or the actual clashes.

The report concludes the police involved in the violence were a minority of Chicago's 12,000-man force, but it says the taint falls on all.

"There has been no public condemnation of these violators by sound police procedures and common decency by either their commanding officers or city officials," the report charged.

"Nor," it added, "has any disciplinary action been taken against most of them. That some policemen lost control of themselves under exceedingly provocative circumstances can perhaps be understood, but not condoned."

The study said if no action is taken against the police, then other officers who did act with responsibility will be discouraged.

It warns, "Although the crowds were finally dispelled on the nights of violence in Chicago, the problems they represent have not been."

"Surely this is not the last time that a violent dissenting group will clash head-on with those whose duty it is to enforce the law. And the next time the whole world will still be watching."

The task force made no recommendations in its report—that is expected to be the job of the full 13-man violence commission headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

The commission is due to go into seclusion at a Washington hotel next weekend to begin writing its full report to President Johnson on the wide range of violence in America.

Johnson named the commission when Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated last June. The panel broadened its studies after the Chicago disorders.

being able to censor it.

In the blur of the battle, even the final number of injured remains uncertain in the report.

It counts 192 policemen hurt, 49 of them hospitalized.

On the other side, 101 demonstrators were hospitalized and the protesters' own medical teams estimated—without full records—more than 1,000 others were treated for tear gas or injuries.

Among the other victims were 63 newsmen attacked and beaten by police.

The report said police singled out reporters and cameramen as they tried to cover the melee in the streets and clubbed them with night sticks.

It also notes that police training forbids the use of night sticks except when necessary for an arrest, self-defense or prevention of an escape. And it points out that police are ordered never to hit a person on the head with the club.

Daley said Sunday 10 policemen have been suspended for failing to wear identification during the disorders and four others "face dismissal proceedings for the use of excessive force."

He said the Police Department is continuing its investigation and added, "I am pleased that the report notes that the majority of policemen did act responsibly under exceeding provocative circumstances."

The violence broke out on the eve of the convention Aug. 25 as police invoked a curfew to clear demonstrators from a park. One of the first victims was a University of California criminologist struck in the back with a shotgun as he tried to aid a boy who had fallen under police blows.

The report noted the criminologist had come to Chicago "to study convention security procedures."

Police chased retreating protesters through the streets of Chicago's Old Town, a night club and Bohemian area. The scene was repeated the next night with even more fury.

A seminary student slugged with a gun butt lost part of his sight. A man getting off a bus as he came home from work was hit with a night stick, the report said. Newsmen took their worst beating this night as police hammered more than two dozen as they tried to cover the fighting.

On Wednesday—the day the Democrats nominated Hubert H. Humphrey for President—protesters lowered an American flag in a park opposite the candidates' hotel and ran up a red cloth resembling a Viet Cong banner. Police charged the flagpole, the report said, and were pelted with stones, bricks and bottles as they pulled down the red pennant.

Police and demonstrators faced each other in lines that looked like the moment before a battle. The police rushed forward, the report said.

Clubs ripped into the crowd. "In the wink of an eye, the police appeared to have lost all control," one witness was quoted as saying. But the battle at the flagpole was still just a prelude to what was to come that night.

Protesters outflanked National Guardsmen and burst out of the park at dusk to besiege the main hotel. The taunts to police escalated in obscenity. At 7:57 p.m. the police started the arrests and, in the words of one patrolman, "Everything went up for grabs."
